

Steve Spitzer

Managing Shareholder

sspitzer@rameyflock.com

Steve Spitzer focuses on probate litigation, will contests, guardianship and trust disputes. He also litigates other civil matters, including personal injury cases and business disputes.

Mr. Spitzer's probate clients have disputed wills, trusts, guardianships, and heirships. Mr. Spitzer handles business and commercial litigation, and was extensively involved in representing health care providers prior to the medical negligence tort reform that passed in 2003. He has been active in both personal injury and probate litigation from that point forward, and has a significant area of his current practice devoted to medical negligence litigation.

Mr. Spitzer was a successful litigator for a major Dallas law firm from 1989 to 2011, and has been with Ramey & Flock since 2012. He has litigated many types of cases in his over 27 years of practice. He has served as the first chair attorney in over two dozen jury trials, has been Board Certified in Personal Injury Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization since 1997, and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates.
