

Andrew Stinson

Shareholder

andys@rameyflock.com

Andy has focused his legal practice in the areas of business and commercial litigation, patent litigation, and employment law. He also has litigation experience in a number of other areas, including products liability and oil and gas law.

Education

- Texas A&M University, B.A.
- Baylor University, J.D.

Certifications

Practice Areas

- Banking
- Business & Commercial Litigation
- Collections
- Commercial Transactions
- Construction
- Creditors Rights
- General Litigation
- Governmental - Municipal Liability
- Health Care
- Insurance Defense
- Oil/Gas
- Real Estate
- Wills - Probate - Estate Planning
- Business Formation
- Labor - Employment

Representations

-
- Represented chipset supplier in a patent infringement suit.
 - Represented internet-based company in a patent infringement suit.
 - Represented movie production studio in a patent infringement suit.
 - Represented sports manufacturer in a false patent marking suit.
 - Represented local hospital in a suit against a major information system supplier.
 - Represented corporate client in a shareholder dispute involving a closely held corporation.
 - Represented local operator against a major oil company.
 - Represented major foreign auto-maker in a products liability lawsuit.

Professional Associations

- American Bar Association
- State Bar of Texas
- Smith County Bar Association
- Texas Association of Defense Counsel

Civic Activities

- Leadership Tyler, Board of Directors, President
- Boys & Girls Club of East Texas, Board of Directors
- Leadership Tyler, Class 20

Admitted to Practice

- U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
- Texas State Courts

Ramey & Flock P.C. | 100 East Ferguson, Suite 404 | Tyler, Texas 75702 | 903-597-3301