Associate Attorney

archerr@rameyflock.com

Archer Ramey is an associate attorney at Ramey & Flock supporting both the transaction and litigation practices, with experience in probate litigation, estate planning and business litigation.

Archer, a Tyler native, received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Baylor University in 2013. Archer earned his Juris Doctor from Baylor Law School in 2016.

Archer's ties to Ramey & Flock date back to 1922, when Thomas B. Ramey, Sr., Archer's great-grandfather founded the firm. Tom Ramey, Jr., Archer's grandfather, joined his father at Ramey & Flock in 1951 and remained with Ramey & Flock until he was elected to the state's Twelfth Court of Appeals in Tyler, where he retired as chief justice.

Archer is a member of the Smith County Bar Association and currently serves as a Board Member for the Smith County Young Lawyers Association (SCYLA), 2018-2019.
