

Justin Lindley

Senior Counsel

Business & Probate Law

✉ jlindley@rameyflock.com

Justin Lindley draws on a breadth of experience in civil, probate, and business litigation to help people find favorable solutions. Now, he primarily focuses on:

- Business law such as business transactions, formation, and construction matters
- Probate law such as probate proceedings, guardianships, and trust related matters
- Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution

Driven by a desire to help people, Justin handles select mediations and civil litigation matters. He has devotedly practiced law in Tyler since 2003.

Education

- Baylor University School of Law, J.D. (2003)
- Texas A&M University, B.S. Soil and Crop Science (2000)

Practice Areas

- Mediation – Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Wills – Probate – Estate Planning
- Guardianships
- Contracts
- Business Transactions
- Business Formation
- Construction
- Oil & Gas

Professional Associations

- State Bar of Texas
- Smith County Bar Association

Civic Activities

- Mentoring Alliance, Current Board Chair
- Junior Achievement, Former Board Chair

Admitted to Practice

- Texas State Courts