

Archer Ramey

Senior Associate Attorney

Probate & Business Litigation

✉ aramey@rameyflock.com

Archer Ramey is a skilled probate litigator who carries on his family's legacy of reliability and excellence at Ramey Flock. He primarily handles:

- Probate litigation including will contests and estate planning
- Business litigation such as business formation, ownership disputes, and business terminations

A Tyler native, Archer brings a wealth of understanding and experience to his clients to help them move through the legal process with assurance.

Education

- Baylor Law, J.D. (2016)
- Baylor University, B.B.A (2013)

Practice Areas

- Wills – Probate – Estate Planning
- Business & Commercial Litigation
- Business Formation
- Probate Litigation – Estate Disputes

Professional Associations

- Smith County Bar Association
- Smith County Young Lawyers Association, President (2022-2023)
- Smith County Young Lawyers Association, Vice-President (2021-2022)
- Smith County Young Lawyers Association, Board Member (2018-2021)
- Smith County Young Lawyers Association, Treasurer/Secretary (2020-2021)
- Smith County Bar Association, Director (2024-2025)

Awards & Accolades

- Outstanding Young Lawyer Award (2023-2024), Smith County Young Lawyer's Association

Admitted to Practice

- All Texas State Courts
- U.S. District Courts – Eastern District of Texas